FACTS

13. On or about September 6, 2013, at approximately 2:05 p.m., plaintiff ALEXANDER WILLIAMS, was arrested in the vicinity of 41 Vernon Blvd. in Queens County in the State of New York.

14. Plaintiff was thereafter held for approximately fifteen hours before being presented before a judicial officer who dismissed the charge of possessing an open container of alcohol, the only charge brought against the plaintiff, in its entirety.

15. Immediately thereafter, on September 7, 2013, plaintiff was transferred to the 44th precinct in the Bronx, New York.

16. Defendants then processed and charged the plaintiff for crimes stemming from a November 28, 2012 armed robbery and attempted murder that occurred inside of 283 East 161st Street in the Bronx.

17. The defendant officers knew that they did not have probable cause to arrest plaintiff.

18. Plaintiff was not involved in the November 28, 2012 incident.

19. Defendants did not possess information that could lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to connect plaintiff with that incident.

20. As a result of defendants' actions, plaintiff spent an additional approximately 55 hours in custody.

21. In connection with plaintiff's arrest, the defendants filled out false and/or misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors at the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

22. As a result of the defendants' conduct, the plaintiff was charged with Attempted Murder, Robbery, Criminal Possession of a Weapon, and various related charges.

23. Thereafter, defendants repeatedly gave false and misleading testimony regarding the facts and circumstances of plaintiff's arrest.

24. Despite defendants' actions, after making numerous court appearances, all charges against plaintiff were dismissed in their entirety on May 6, 2014.

25. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ALEXANDER WILLIAMS sustained, inter alia, mental anguish, shock, fright, apprehension, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

26. All of the aforementioned acts of defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.

27. All of the aforementioned acts deprived plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and were therefore in violation of 42 U.S.C. §1983.

28. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

29. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

30. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
